Colville Troopers Have New Office

On May 1, 2006, the WSP Colville detachment moved to a new location. The detachment moved into a vacant United States Forest Service building at 751 South Main Street, in Colville.

The building is being leased from the US Forest Service by the WSP. Troopers in Colville had been in office space near the Stevens County Courthouse. This new building will provide the local troopers with more space to work.

There is an open house scheduled for May 23, 2006. Assistant Chief Brian Ursino will be on hand to inspect the new building.
